

Notice Concerning Transferability of Credits and Credentials Earned

The transferability of credits you earn at Olivet University International is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the degree or certificate you earn in your Program is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the credits, degree, or certificate that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason, you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending Olivet University International to determine if your credits, degree, or certificate will transfer.

Prospective students interested in applying to Olivet University International should complete an application, available upon request from Olivet University International's Office of Admissions or on the Internet at <http://international.olivetuniversity.edu/apply.html>

All applicants to Olivet University International should evince strong Christian character, potential for effectiveness in Christian ministry, and the scholastic ability and emotional maturity to handle a higher education experience.

Admissions personnel will review applicants' information and inform them whether or not they have been accepted for admission. Prospective students are encouraged to discuss plans, goals, and questions with the Office of Admissions (oui_admissions@olivetuniversity.edu) during this application process.
